Mrs. McPhedran,
St. Bidas,
31 Earl's Avenue,
Folkestone, England.

Dear Mrs. McPhedran:

I have asked the Bursar to make your husband's university cheques payable to Mr. W. David, 41 Dupont Street.

I am sorry that you are having such a difficult time during the past year or two and I hope that after the war things may brighten for you again.

Yours sincerely,

President.

FOLKESTONE.

January 12

Dear President. I received.

the September, the paper has been - having heard that my husband was specifically in the hospital - telling that this is being himself to his wife. London, he was - that is what the asked him to send the the best work and keep a record of it in his laboratory. I have been now to write to Professor Rhodes in a letter dated 3 weeks ago: to Professor the last work of the entire to I have written the paper feeling that I would say the case before you and that I was also that you are provided of the most necessary food as well as the paper to facilitate my husband's return to England to receive the duties as I was ever for him to know that I should do the President - at the same as the paper chair of a month's necessity. I shall and as you don't know the situation, no scientific work has been done in the Canadian Army and now has been been there as the most of the food for me.

 I see I write to the day and the my husband of the paper plan to have the entire nothing of it and

and with kind regards to you

Yours sincerely,

Thomas M. Stedman

It was some 20 or 25 years before I did him as it did to me. - but a very pleasant result was you that FOLKESTONE.
The Stedman had no thought of leaving his wife - I say now.
I am the passing. The letters to left in the house to be of a higher commercial to remain at home. I have and although I was still in the factoring & doing operations to the good of the right. I have the few cattle. I have a few. I have. I have that you wish them. I have to be to England. I have acquaintance with the the Stedman. He is I am now. I am of a man that is always confiducial. Please do not ask Dr. Alexander McPhedran's opinion in this matter. He has never been friendly to my husband and has done everything in his power to keep him back and would I feel sure do so now if possible. I think Dr. J. C. Macdonald would be able to confirm the above as he knows what the relationship has been.

If you could wire you do so at my expense and send the wire to Mr. William David, 41 Dupont Street Toronto - who is looking after our affairs. To wire would mean another six months' wait - at the very least? I have been told that Capt. McPhedran is to be given a commission that will enable him to carry on such a responsible undertaking to the best possible advantage. I know that Dr. Andrew Gordon would be delighted to give you further information about Sir James Macbeazie.

Thanking you in advance for your early attention to this matter.

Mrs. McPhedran,

St. Hildas,

31 Earl's Avenue, Folkeston, England.

Dear Mrs. McPhedran:

I have just received your letter asking that Dr. McPhedran should be recalled from Salonika in order to undertake work under Sir James Mackenzie. You mention also that Sir James Mackenzie had written to General Carleton Jones asking for your husband's recall, but that you believed it was somewhat doubtful as to whether he would accede to Sir James Mackenzie's request.

I cannot on my own responsibility cable to the Militia authorities at Ottawa asking for his transfer, nor could I cable General Roberts because he would not understand my message. I am, however, to-day writing to General Roberts and I would suggest that you should ask Sir James Mackenzie to write to General Roberts putting the case before him. If then General Roberts agrees at the transfer it is altogether probable that General Jones will make it. Now that our Hospital unit is on a military basis we can only take action through the Commanding Officer and the Militia Department when we know that the Commanding Officer agrees to any proposal.

I am glad to know that your husband made such a favourable impression upon Sir James Mackenzie and I hope that General Roberts will find it possible to relieve him. With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

CHURCHMAN
